

AMI Mini Campus

American Music Institute

Remus Badea
Executive Director

2015 State of Music in Schools

- Music programs in schools diminish due to budgetary constraints on schools
- Parents have little redress to expand educational offerings to their children

Benefits of Music Education

- Music education has much to offer kids:
 - Teamwork
 - Discipline
 - Creativity
 - Self-confidence
 - Improved math and language skills

Benefits of AMI Mini Campus

- AMI Mini Campus brings the following back into cash-strapped schools:
 - individual music lessons
 - group music lessons
 - music theory classes
 - music appreciation classes
 - customized program & class structure

How AMI Mini Campus Works

Prog A

- 1 day per wk: 2.5 hours of class time (3 classes)

Prog B

- 2 days per wk: 2.5 hours of class time (3 classes)

Prog C

- 2 days per wk: 2.5 hours of class time (3 classes)

Note: Program can be tailored to school needs

- 3 Core Classes or 2 Core Classes & 1 Special

- Special Classes can be added on top of the 3 Classes

Mini Campus Class Menu

- Core Classes:
 - Early Education Class
 - Music Appreciation
 - Group Instrument Class
 - Orchestra / Band / Choir
- Special Classes:
 - Private Lessons
 - Chamber Music
 - Genre Classes: jazz, folk, world, pop
 - Masterclass or Clinic
 - Group Piano (if piano lab is available)
 - Rock 'n Jam Class

AMI Core Strengths

- AMI Faculty: Highly Degreed & College Faculty
- Customized Program
- Teacher Background Checks
- Creative & Enriching Environment
- Scholarships
- Non-profit org – Ability to Fundraise
- 10% OFF other AMI Programs: AYSO, Solo Competitions, Summer Camp, Conservatory, Concert Series
- Donated Instruments (when available) or Discounts from Dealers
- Competitive Tuition

“AMI Blends Practice, Lessons, and Performance to Create the Musician of Tomorrow.”

–Remus Badea,
AMI Executive Director

American Music Institute

AMI Clarendon Hills Campus

60 55th Street
Clarendon Hills, IL 60514

AMI St. Charles Campus

307 Cedar Avenue
St. Charles, IL 60174

Phone: (630) 850-8505

Email: AMI@AMImusic.org
<http://www.amimusic.org>